Brief production process of Kopi LUWAK :

Kopi LUWAK is terminology used by Indonesian people or to be more Specific by the Javanese people for Coffee which is directly processed from the excrement of civet cat (LUWAK is the Javanese word for civet cat).

LUWAK is known for its likings to eat/consume only ripe coffee berries in the jungle or coffee plantation, Civet cat eats the red ripe coffee berries, digests the berries to only absorb the pulp and send the rest out as clusters of excrement of coffee in the parchment which is collected by farmers and process them to be Kopi LUWAK.
